

Please, do not change the current FCC rules. It is not right for a small group of big companies to control the majority of the media outlets.